ABOUT

Arequipa Countryside Tour

“YANAHUARA: A STROLL THROUGH AREQUIPA’S HISTORIC CHARM AND COLONIAL LEGACY”

Step into history in the charming neighborhood of Yanahuara. Here, you’ll visit a beautifully preserved colonial-era church and wander beneath the famous arches, which are etched with moments from Arequipa’s past. This unique area captures the heart of Arequipa’s heritage and architectural beauty.

“MIRADOR OF CARMEN ALTO: A PANORAMIC GATEWAY TO AREQUIPA’S MAJESTIC VALLEY AND VOLCANOES”

Begin your adventure with a panoramic view from the Mirador of Carmen Alto. This natural lookout provides breathtaking views of the Arequipa Valley, where ancient pre-Inca terraces cascade across the landscape, framed by the majestic volcanoes El Misti, Chachani, and Picchu Picchu.

THE FOUNDER’S MANSION: A WINDOW INTO AREQUIPA’S COLONIAL HERITAGE AND ARTISTRY

Dive deeper into Arequipa’s colonial legacy at the Founder’s Mansion, an estate filled with exquisite art and artifacts that offer a glimpse into the city’s vibrant history.

SABANDIA MILL: A TRANQUIL RETREAT AMONG HISTORIC GROUNDS AND LUSH CACTUS GARDENS

Conclude the tour with a peaceful visit to the historic Sabandia Mill. Amidst lush surroundings, discover more than 50 varieties of cactus plants and enjoy the serene atmosphere of this traditional site.

Next, we'll continue to Carmen Alto, a natural lookout point that presents a panoramic vista of Arequipa's beautiful countryside. From here, you can enjoy sweeping views of the lush valleys and the meandering Chili River, a peaceful scene that captures the essence of the region's rural beauty.

Our next destination takes us to the Founder's Mansion, a historic building that has been transformed into a museum. This fascinating site showcases a collection of colonial relics, including exquisite paintings and antique weapons from the Spanish era, providing a deeper insight into Arequipa's colonial past.

To conclude the tour, we head to the Sabandia region, where we'll visit the Sabandia Mill, the first stone mill of Arequipa, built in 1621. This historic site, surrounded by serene landscapes, offers a glimpse into the past while you explore the preserved architecture of the mill.

Finally, you'll return to your hotel in Arequipa.
