ABOUT

Cusco City Tour

“SACSAYHUAMAN RUINS: EXPERIENCE THE MARVEL OF INCA ARCHITECTURE”

Explore Sacsayhuaman Ruins and witness a marvel of Inca engineering. Perched high above Cusco, this colossal ceremonial center boasts massive stones, perfectly fitted together with remarkable precision. Built over 50 years, its mysterious origins and grand design continue to captivate visitors.

“QENQO: UNVEIL THE MYSTERIES OF INCA RITUALS”

Visit the Ruins of Qenqo and delve into a world shrouded in Inca mystery. Hidden in the hills near Cusco, this intriguing site boasts labyrinthine subterranean passages and enigmatic zigzagging stone channels. Imagine ancient rituals unfolding around the carved stone table, where mummification ceremonies once took place.

“PUKA PUKARA: WITNESS THE MASTERY OF INCA FORTIFICATIONS AND STRATEGY”

Our Cusco City Tour also takes you to visit the Ruins of Puka Pukara, an ancient testament to Inca military strategy. Perched on a commanding hilltop, this impressive fortress was a crucial checkpoint and defensive stronghold..

“TAMBOMACHAY: UNVEIL THE SPIRITUAL HARMONY OF INCA WATER RITUALS”

Our tour also takes you to the Ruins of Tambomachay, an ancient sanctuary dedicated to the Inca God of Water. Nestled in a serene landscape, Tambomachay features intricate aqueducts, cascading fountains, and meticulously crafted stonework that highlight the Incas' reverence for water and their advanced engineering skills.

“DISCOVER THE CATHEDRAL OF CUSCO: A TESTAMENT TO TIMELESS ART AND HISTORY”

At the heart of the city, we also visit the Cathedral of Cusco, a breathtaking gem of colonial architecture. This 16th-century masterpiece, constructed atop an ancient Inca temple, showcases a stunning blend of Renaissance and Baroque styles. Marvel at its intricately decorated interiors, including a remarkable collection of colonial paintings and the famous depiction of the Last Supper with a unique twist, featuring guinea pig.

“QORICANCHA: THE TEMPLE OF THE SUN TRANSFORMED INTO TIMELESS BEAUTY”

Finally, explore the magnificent Qoricancha Temple, also known as the Santo Domingo Church. Once the most sacred temple of the Inca Empire, Qoricancha was dedicated to the Sun God, Inti, and adorned with gold and precious stones. Following the Spanish conquest, it was transformed into the Santo Domingo Church, seamlessly blending Inca stonework with colonial baroque architecture.
