CHAN CHAN RUINS TOUR

HISTORY, CULTURE, ADVENTURE AND MUCH MORE

“Step back in time with our Chan Chan Ruins Tour and explore one of the greatest archaeological wonders of northern Peru. Located just outside the city of Trujillo, this vast adobe city was built by the Chimú Kingdom around 850 AD. Guided by an expert, you’ll uncover the secrets of Chan Chan’s ceremonial plazas, temples, friezes, royal tombs, and its fascinating museum artifacts. Walk through history as you experience the world’s largest city of mud — a UNESCO World Heritage treasure.”

ABOUT

Chan Chan Ruins Tour

“CHIMU HERITAGE AT CHAN CHAN MUSEUM”

Begin your Chan Chan Ruins Tour at the excellent site museum. View original artifacts — ceramics, textiles, wood carvings, tools — and a scale model of the ancient city. Gain key insights into Chimu society before exploring the ruins themselves.

“EXPLORE THE GREAT PLAZA OF CHAN CHAN”

Walk through the vast ceremonial plaza of Chan Chan, where important rituals once took place. Admire high adobe walls adorned with marine friezes that reflect the Chimu's spiritual connection to the sea and natural world.

“VISIT THE ROYAL MAUSOLEUMS AND NOBLE QUARTERS”

Step inside the remains of the royal tombs and noble residences. Learn how Chimu kings and elites lived, their burial practices, and the sophisticated urban planning that once supported tens of thousands of inhabitants.

“MARVEL AT INTRICATE ADOBE FRIEZES”

Throughout your Chan Chan Ruins Tour, encounter beautifully preserved friezes — waves, fish, pelicans, sea otters — carved into the walls. These motifs reveal the Chimu's artistry and their reverence for marine life.

“Unraveling the History and Art of the Chimu Empire”

With your guide, you'll explore the vast ceremonial plazas, royal tombs, and labyrinthine corridors of this pre-Inca capital. Along the way, admire beautifully preserved marine-themed friezes carved into the walls — symbols of the Chimu people's deep connection to the ocean. Learn about ancient city planning, religious life, and the powerful legacy of the Chimu Kingdom.

Part 3: Huanchaco Village and Living Traditions

After exploring the ruins, we continue to the charming fishing village of Huanchaco, located on Peru's northern coast. Here you'll witness ancient maritime traditions still practiced today by the descendants of the Chimu. Watch fishermen preparing their iconic caballitos de totora (reed boats), crafted with age-old techniques. Your guide will share insights into how these boats — used for thousands of years — remain a vital part of local life. After time to enjoy the seaside atmosphere, we return to Trujillo, concluding your enriching cultural adventure.
